Faith Family Executive Director Laura Hobson has been appointed to serve on committees for the Christian Community Health Fellowship and the Tennessee Primary Care Association.

Faith Family Medical Clinic Executive Director Laura Hobson has been appointed to the Council of Directors and Administrators of the Christian Community Health Fellowship (CCHF), a national network of Christian health professionals and others concerned about the health care needs of the impoverished communities in the United States.

Laura's role on the Council of Directors and Administrators will be to help advise and identify specific initiatives that CCHF might do to benefit Christian health centers in the U.S

Laura has also been named to the Policy Committee of the Tennessee Primary Care Association (TPCA). The TPCA works to unite health centers and other providers of care in an effort to improve access for the medically underserved.

Her role on the Policy Committee will be to advise the TPCA Board of Directors on Association policy and procedures.
